Week of October 11, 2015

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the Pastor's Desk

It has been said (or at least it used to be) that sex and money are two things that you do not discuss in polite company. Jesus doesn't seem to agree—or maybe he doesn't consider his listeners to be polite company. Last week we got challenging words from Jesus on marriage and this week we have no less challenging words on wealth.

The Letter to the Hebrews says that the word of God is sharper than a two-edged sword, revealing the thoughts of the heart, and in the Gospel reading Jesus' words cut to the heart of the rich man who asks what he must do to inherit eternal life. For though this man fulfills the commandments sincerely, Jesus knows that he has not yet put himself fully in the service of God. His wealth still matters more to him than following Jesus.

This man is not alone. When Jesus speaks of how hard it is for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God, he is recognizing how money exerts such an attractive force on us that we are constantly tempted to put it first in our lives. But that is the place that only God should occupy. Money seems to promise the happiness and security that only God can deliver. Both of the things that we should not discuss in polite company—sex and money—are truly and genuinely good things. But when we put them in the place of God, when we prefer them to God's kingdom, then we become like the camel trying to squeeze through the eye of the needle.

Lord Jesus, you call us to come and follow you. We leave behind everything that would hold us back, so that we can be free to be your disciples. Amen.

- When have I felt the word of God—whether in the form of scripture or perhaps in a homily—cut me to my heart?
- Is there anything that I would not give up in order to follow Jesus? Should I have to give up everything to follow him?

Shalom! Fr. Pat

You'll find everything about our upcoming events on the bulletin board in the Gathering Space, to the left of the exit doors. We'll no longer mail out our newsletter; it'll be published under our club page on the parish website: www.stgeorgercchurch.org/st-george-social-group, and the $5.00 membership fee has been eliminated. So, you no longer need to be a member, nor do you have to be over 50 years old, in order to join us for food, fun and fellowship!

PARENTING PERSPECTIVE "Go, sell what you have and give to the poor" (Mark 10:21). Invite your child to take a step with you. Each of you choose one belonging to give to a person who has less than you. If you don't know of a needy person or family, take it to the Bread of Life Outreach Center, the St. Vincent de Paul clothing donation box or Poor Box, or to Goodwill.

JOIN OUR VOLUNTEER LIST Our tiny but loyal band of volunteers could really use your helping hands with the maintenance of our buildings and grounds, and other odd jobs, especially with clearing the church and chapel walkways of snow in the winter! If you can help, regularly or occasionally, please call the Rectory at 652-3153 to let us know how you can help.

Youth volunteers – you can earn Community Service hours for your help!

MARRIAGE AND ANNULMENT IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH SEMINAR on Thursday, October 22nd at 7 pm at St. Martha Parish, 10 French Road, Depew. The marriage of a man and a woman is revered by the Catholic Church as a vocation ordained by God. It is both a reflection of God's love and a manifestation of God's love in the world. But our hearts go out to the many good people who have suffered the tragic breakup of their marriage. Anyone who finds themselves in this type of situation should not fear the Church's procedures. Rev. Robert Zilliox, JCL from the Tribunal Office of the Diocese of Buffalo will speak about the Essence of Canon Law and the Sacrament of Marriage and he will explain the new procedures for annulments recently announced by Pope Francis. Many Catholics across the United States have welcomed Pope Francis' annulment reforms, the most far-reaching in almost three centuries. All are welcome!
